

In the wake of Hurricane Harvey's impact, we are commonly asked by donors how they can help and what items we need for us to be in position to respond and to ultimately replenish our inventories. Below is a list of items that are most helpful.

Thanks for your willingness to help us be in position to reduce hunger and restore a quality of life in the aftermath of this historic storm.

Items that are Most Needed to Assist with Hurricane Related Hunger Relief and Recovery

- Hand-held snack items such as granola bars, peanut butter crackers, protein bars, etc.
- Pop-top ready-to-eat items such as applesauce or fruit cups
- Shelf-stable pantry items such as peanut butter, jelly, tuna, chili, beef stew and soup

Other Helpful Items

- Bottled water
- Personal hygiene items (toothbrushes, toothpaste, deodorant, etc.)
- Cleaning supplies (bleach, non-bleach, paper towels, etc.)

Monetary Donations

- Monetary donations are truly welcome, as they give us the ultimate flexibility to be responsive and fulfill our mission in the face of evolving circumstances. Financial contributions can be made online through our website (www.setxfoodbank.org) or by mailing checks to: Southeast Texas Food Bank, P.O. Box 21012, Beaumont, TX 77720
